NORTH WEST BLOOD BIKES

William, Mary and family

On 11th of August, a Coffee Morning at Waterside Farm, Firbank in aid of the North West Blood Bikes.

Where do we begin? The weather forecast at the beginning of the week was slightly worrying but the day dawned with brilliant sunshine and couldn't have been better, bringing out the crowds. We were very fortunate and grateful to have the Russell Curwen Memorial Blood Bike on show with thanks going to Russell's sister, Sue Fiddler and Blood Biker Colin Kendal (in photo) who arranged this for us.

(The Memorial Bike was presented to Russell's family and the Blood Bikers by the Kendal Group of Freemasons on behalf of all the Cumberland & Westmorland (Cumbria) Members at a special Ceremony on Monday 16th July at Kendal. Ed.)

We find it hard to find words to express our thanks to all who supported the event and made the morning such a success. The kitchen staff and stallholders worked so hard and grateful thanks goes to them. Not forgetting the car park attendants who managed to park everyone without any mishaps!

Thank you all for the generous donations. It was a morning of mixed emotions, but also an amazing morning which raised £1,131.61 for North West Blood Bikes. What more can we say but a big thank you to you all.

Liz will be competing in the Great North Run on September 9th for the same Charity, so hopefully a final total will appear in the October Lookaround.

NEWS FROM THE PRACTICE

Tracy Thornton

Lots of things happening at the surgery to tell you about.....

Firstly Sharon Cheeseman our cleaner of 25 years retired in August, we would like to wish her well in her retirement and thank her for all her hard work over the years, she will be missed by all.

You may also notice that we have a different clinician on our appointments list, we would like to congratulate Sue Wrennall (now Sue Cooper) on her recent marriage to Paul, we would like to wish them all the best for their future together.

Triage of appointments

If you have been on our website/ Facebook page or looked at the right hand side of your prescription you will be aware that we are making some slight changes to the way we answer phone calls. From Monday 13th August reception staff will ask all patients booking appointments the reason for the appointment, this is so they can signpost you to the most appropriate clinician or service. We are making these changes as a result of an audit that we undertook in June which highlighted that 20% of our appointments potentially could have been avoidable i.e. patient could of been seen by a different clinician, had a telephone call or been signposted to another service. We hope this change will ensure patients are seen by the most appropriate person at the right time, improving patient awareness and education about who does what at the practice and what external organisations can offer. If a patient does not want to disclose the reason then that is absolutely fine, however we would like to reiterate that all our staff are trained in confidentiality.

Flu Clinics

Flu season is fast approaching and we have some dates for your diaries, subject to flu vaccine delivery.

Pulse checks for Atrial Fibrillation

In order to screen for abnormal heart rhythms – mainly a condition known as atrial fibrillation, we will be offering pulse checks when you attend for your flu vaccination. Atrial fibrillation is a condition that can occur at any age – but tends to present later in life and for many people does not have any symptoms that can alert us that there is a problem. The main issue with untreated atrial fibrillation is that it can result in a stroke which can leave a patient very disabled. We know that by finding atrial fibrillation early and offering investigations and treatment, we can reduce the potentially life changing events that are associated with this condition. The clinician who is giving your flu vaccination will ask you if you would like a pulse check and give you the opportunity to decline if you so wish.

If the clinician finds that you have an abnormal pulse, in most instances this will not need immediate action. You will be asked to book an appointment the following week for a routine ECG with one of our nurses in order to confirm or exclude the diagnosis. Only if the diagnosis is confirmed on ECG will you then be offered further investigations and treatment and this will all depend on a number of factors including your past medical history, your age and your own personal wishes.

My GP App and Patient Access

You may have heard about the new app 'Mygp' once downloaded this

It also has the function to allow you to set a reminder to take your medication on time, record you weight and blood pressure data. To download the app go to your app store or www.mygp.io/ app sign in with your registered mobile number and date of birth. You can also link into Patient Access (if you already have this set up) to order your repeat prescription and view your medical record on-line. DDCF FESTIVAL

John & Sarah E Woof

A bit of a mouthful.. Dentdale Christian Fellowship Festival, thankfully can abbreviate. Once again a wonderful weekend and all took place in the lovely surroundings of Dentdale.

Friends started to gather on Thursday afternoon, first the garden was full of dogs which went exploring and turned their hearing off so their "mummy" called for them in vain. Then soon after they were all located and bundled in the car the children arrived and did the same, went of to explore the garden and refused to be called back to Mummy! Tent up, caravan occupied and others at the farm in the static. Our Guest room occupied and a happy crew shared meals out on the patio.

Friday more people arrived and in the eve the Creative Worship in the tent included song and dance and the start of a continual painting of praise and of course a supper!

Saturday morning breakfast in the huge tent on our drive (caused some parking chaos) then some of us went to the St Andrews Coffee Morning. The Bouncy Castle and cafe were very popular Sat (and Sun) afternoons and also the Sanctuary tent with massage, then of to the Meal at the George and Dragon followed by an interview with Ellie Holbrook about relating her faith to family life. Then her son Ben joined her to sing some worship songs.

"Courageous " was the film shown in the Methodist Chapel Schoolroom followed by hot chocolate and cake.

Sunday morning we held a short time of worship and sharing and then the BC and cafe. John Fox from Quernmore was our speaker in the eve and he opened up a chapter of Genesis for us. We chatted over supper and the team started to disperse.

Some great conversations as we shared the love of God with those who came or we saw in the village. Many thanks to those who helped esp praying and on the "techi" aspect!

Meanwhile DDCF meets on 4th Sunday of every month, at Rhumes, starting 6.45pm with a buffet supper. And one Friday evening where we celebrate Shabbat. Further info: 015396 25212.

SEDBERGH PARISH COUNCIL

*Janey Hassam
Clerk to the Council*

This report covers items from the Parish Council meetings on the 9th August 2018. The next meeting is on Thursday 13th September 2018 at 7.30pm in the Committee Room, The People's Hall, Howgill Lane, Sedbergh.

Co-Option

Jake Cowperthwaite was elected onto Sedbergh Parish Council following the uncontested Election result in May. Jake is 20 years old is and believed to be one of the youngest ever Parish Councillors in Sedbergh.

Sedbergh Parish Council now has a complete council, comprising of the Chair, Kevin Lancaster, Vice Chair, Roger Sedgwick and Members Ian McPherson, Steve Longlands, Ed Welti, Simon Arnold, Margaret Brooks, Helen Bromley, John Capstick, Sam Farrell and Jake Cowperthwaite.

Street Furniture/Vehicles on Pavements

Members noted concerns in regard to street furniture causing some obstruction on pavements and were mindful to remind business owners to try and be courteous to pedestrians at all times, allowing access for prams/wheelchairs/scooters etc. Members are, of course, aware that due to the nature of the pavements on Main Street/Finkle street, clear and safe access can be problematic. WHY DO IT TODAY?

Philip Johns

While not an official Garsdale parish meeting, a large number of local residents met in the village hall on Tuesday 14th August to hear the latest updates from B4RN, the community broadband provider. After many months of background work, seeking wayleaves, financing and planning routes, B4RN was able to say it was all systems go!

Various teams have been beavering away, laying ducting in all directions and with Dentdale nearing full completion, the mole digging

contractors were fast approaching Sedbergh and anticipate that they would reach the outskirts of Longstone Fell in the next couple of weeks. That is where the volunteers would be handing over to a new group from Garsdale: B4RN had done all they could and it was now down to this group to grasp the mantle and head off towards the village hall, where a new cabinet is to be sited. Dave Ryall from B4RN highlighted all the categories of volunteers that were needed, from general coordinators, logistics organiser, landowner liaison, general diggers, connection box fitters and tea makers, to list a few. If Garsdale missed this opportunity, what with the funding in place, then it would be a long time before such a chance would present itself again. Sky and BT are edging, over the next few years, to stop using satellite communications and as Garsdale has no terrestrial TV signal, the dale would then be literally back in the dark ages if we failed in this project.

If everything went to plan and sufficient support was forthcoming, B4RN anticipated that the duct from Sedbergh to the village hall could be laid with fibre blown through, making that section live with the world's fastest broadband, before Christmas. After that, steady progress should be made towards Grisedale and The Moorcock, bringing properties live as they went along.

I am pleased to report that a core band of volunteers were successfully gleaned from the meeting to do all the major jobs and sufficient others volunteered to help out where needed. However, it is always the case that more hands make lighter work and if you wish to be added to the list of volunteers, please contact me, not B4RN, with your details.

The unofficial bit: in my last 'report' I condemned the practice of profiteering when selling eggs to a captive market, (incidentally, Morrisons, in Kendal, are now selling local free-range eggs at 6 for £1) but also brought to your attention the spiralling cost of the 'temporary' traffic lights that have blighted Garsdale since November, last year. There has been some progress, if you can call it that. Until Monday of the week of this 'report', traffic cones had been placed along the road so that vehicles travelling along the A684 would not be close to the endangered retaining walls. However, in instance No. 1,

Highways, in their wisdom moved the cones to the other side of the road making all vehicles, large or small, navigate close to these walls. They also craned in a portable 'toilet' into the nearby layby before coning off access to this and the other layby further up the road, which remains empty. Now I say 'toilet', but it's not just a toilet. Apparently, a discreet bucket behind a bush is no longer acceptable, probably something to do with 'uman rites, I shouldn't wonder. So this toilet has a shower, canteen, office, swimming pool, spa, children's play area...OK, so I'm exaggerating a little, but this 'toilet' is so large, a family of 4 could happily live in it. So far, in a total of 3 days, I've seen 2 men, one working a mechanical digger, scaping out a 10metre ditch along the wall by the farmer's field. Any self-respecting person with a shovel could have done that in a couple of hours and wouldn't have needed a toilet the size of a 4 bedroomed house to go with it. Instance No. 2, Garsdale, along with most of the country, has seen precious little rain this summer, resulting in record low water levels in Clough River, an ideal time, you would think, for Cumbria County Council to start repairing the walls along the river, which are in imminent danger of collapsing, and would cut off a vital route for months, costing hundreds of thousands more to put right. But no, after many months of prevaricating and dithering, they wait for the weather to break, letting the river build up a good flow, preventing access, before they finally decide it was time to start work. I don't have to remind you that this is our council tax money they are spending and the cost of the 'temporary' traffic lights has now passed £20,000.

So why do something today when they can put it off until tomorrow? Or the day after, or the day after ...

The return to more normal weather from the baking sunshine of June and July has generally been welcomed. However, I hope the wet is just an interlude and the warm dry weather will soon return because like most farmers I need to make a second cut. The silage we have is perfect, we just need a lot more yet.

B4RN Hyperfast Broadband is continuing apace here in Cautley and Dowbiggin. As I write this we have installed over 7 km and soon there will be far more. Where we have been different from earlier projects is we have had three separate working teams and that has really made a real difference. Our biggest challenge is still before us, getting the ducting over the river Heyber and through Hebblethwaite Gill. If anyone wants to see what we do when we mole plough the ducting in the ground or even help with the hand-digging through Hebblethwaite Gill just drop me an email. You will always be welcome.

Since last Thursday the new Sedbergh Parish Council is up to its full strength of eleven members with the co-optation of Jake Cowperthwaite. At 21 Jake must be the youngest ever member of our council and one of the youngest parish councillors in England. Welcomes also to our other new members Ed Welti and Sam Farrell. As a council we want to do things rather than be writing plans and strategies. We now have just over three and a half years to get on with it. I have been very impressed with how soon we have set down to work and how well we are gelling together.

Outside Sedbergh it was good to see Dent Parish Council fully committed to employing Trevor Hodgson once again to trim the road verges in spite of the preposterous obstacles Cumbria county council have tried to put in their way. There is much work for people like Trevor both inside and outside Dent parish. It is good news that national government is going to spend £1.9m on the A684 from Junction 37 of the M6 up to the county boundary at the Moorcock and how appalling that those in control of the county tried to divert the money to the A595.

Waste collection is the day to day business of district councils. We thought we had secured plastic recycling on Dent car park. The bin was there, and then it wasn't – bizarre. Sheila's new bin on New Bridge is being well used, too well no need for a hosepipe ban! Despite the rain, it hasn't kept the visitors away, and from my own experience Dent is having a good summer for tourists in comparison to previous years.

It is good to see that Sedbergh School's new sports facility is nearing completion, as I said last month, grassroots football (along with many other local sports) are desperate for new facilities. Planning permission was granted with the condition that the sports centre be offered for local community use... I expect many local sports clubs will enjoy using this facility very soon.

I'm currently working closely with Suzie Pye, on a variety of issues, we will be out and about throughout our years and to quadruple the rate paid on homes that are left empty for more than ten years but to beg him to extend this initiative to include second homes.

Increasing council tax on empty homes is a great way to encourage people to bring them back into use by families desperate for somewhere to live. But there are under 1000 empty homes in South Lakeland and there are currently over 3,000 people on lists waiting for somewhere to live, with the levels of homelessness have been rising at scary rates over the past twelve months.

A much bigger impact would be felt if we could get some of the second homes in the area brought back into use by local people. There are over four times as many second homes as empty homes. If second homes came back into use by local people that would wipe out our housing problem. This is why I asked the minister to extend these new powers he is planning to give to councils. Even if increasing council tax did not persuade people to give up their second homes then at least the increased council tax revenue could help the council fund more affordable homes in the area.

I tabled a motion in Parliament calling on the Government to extend the Entry and Higher Level Stewardship schemes that pay farmers for the work they put in to keeping our countryside looking the way that it does. Currently the schemes start to run out at Christmas and the government has made no commitment at all to their replacement. We cannot allow this uncertainty to carry on.

On another farming related issue I wrote to the farming minister George Eustace. I asked him to put in place some support measures to help farmers to cope with the drought we faced earlier this summer. I know that the absence of rain feels a bit like a distant memory but the impact all that dry weather had on animal feeds will be felt well into the winter. Many farmers had to use their winter feed to stop their animals starving when the grass stopped growing.

Finally I have been pressing the Department of Health over their funding for rural pharmacies. I have been hearing stories of some pharmacies in our area who have been paying out more for the drugs that are prescribed than they are receiving back from the government. It is easier for big chains to keep going in this situation as they can make money selling more things. About 140 pharmacies around the country have been forced to close over the past couple of years we really cannot afford to lose any of ours.

And that's to say nothing of the regular communication I have been having with the Department of Transport about trains.

If there is anything you would like me to take up with the government. Just drop me an email at tim@timfarron.co.uk or give us a call on 01539 723 403. Thanks

Insurance Broker to Celebrate 50 years of trading.

J N & E Capstick Insurance, based in Kirkby Stephen are to celebrate half a century in business, with customers and staff, past and present.

The family-run firm, based in Market Square also run an office in Sedbergh, will be holding an open-to-all anniversary event at Newbiggin-on-Lune village hall on 9th September.

Newbiggin-on-Lune is where founder Norman Capstick began the business in September 1968, when he received his first agency agreement from the then Provincial Insurance.

The firm was then selling motor, home and farm insurance to the local community, and now also offers financial investments and is expanding its agricultural insurance cover.

Norman's wife Elsie, became a partner in 1973 and continues to keep a knowledgeable eye over the business. The firm has been run by their son, David, since 1989 and following Norman's death in 1998.

The financial investments side of the company is run by their daughter, Alison's husband, Gary Capstick who joined in 1989.

The firm expanded to Appleby in 1998, which operated for around 10 years. It also acquired Les Maddock Insurance Brokers, Sedburgh following Mr Maddock's retirement in 2007. The company moved to the old HSBC bank premises in Sedburgh in 2013.

In June 2017, J N & E Capstick Insurance established a "pop-up office" at Hawes auction, this is open on auction days. David said that it has taken off and is helping to improve the firm's presence in the agricultural sector.

The firm now employs 18 full and part-time staff, some having being with the company for many years. The family run company is keen to support the local community and believes that it has a responsibility to give something back to the area that, over the past 50 years, has supported them loyally.

This community support was further displayed in 2017 when the company won "Broker Claims Team of the Year" in the national Commercial Insurance Awards.

The award recognised businesses providing service which puts clients' needs at the heart of the operation. It won the award following outstanding work supporting customers who suffered from the Storm Desmond floods.

In 2017 David and staff raised over £1000 for Cancer Research and the Great North Air Ambulance service by doing a sponsored Tour De Lune bike ride.

David said that the insurance industry over the past 50 years is more computerised, and although computers do so much people still want to speak to people.

He said "I was chuffed with the award because people can buy insurance on the internet, but we offer a local service with a local presence and that's our USP (unique selling point). It demonstrates that we really look after people and I believe we have a service second to none".

Looking to the next 50 years J N & E Capstick Insurance is working to develop its online presence. The existing website is being redeveloped and is expected to be launched later this year. They are also trying to increase the social media activity and has a Facebook page.

Planning permission has recently been granted to develop a third storey at the Market Square premises, which will create more office space.

serene baby did not bat an eyelid in protest against the cool water running down her forehead at the moment of baptism. The following round of applause was well deserved.

The dry weather gave unexpected free time to the chaps who mow the churchyard as the grass had a rest from growing for a few weeks, basking in the sunshine. No doubt that is about to change as the downpours we have experienced over the last few days (remember this is written in mid August) will encourage growth, and the green bins will once again be filled to the brim by the faithful grass cutters doing their weekly workout.

Taking inspiration from Carlisle

Castle's recent "Weeping Window" display of poppies we are planning to host a "Streams of Remembrance" in the churchyard for a week beginning on Saturday 10th November forming a backdrop for the Annual Remembrance ceremony to be held at St Andrew's on Sunday 11th November.

Dent Church is hosting a similar event in their own churchyard and we will be liaising closely with them over the many practical challenges we will face!

Briefly the outline plan is to have a poppy trail or stream through the churchyard representing Sedbergh town with tributaries representing Cautley, Garsdale, Killington, Firbank,

A material backing will represent the water to which standard British Legion poppies will be tied providing a carpet of poppies. Tall special poppies are planned to line the trail, one for each of the named Sedbergh and District individuals who lost their lives in combat.

Anyone in the district who would like to make (or buy) a poppy will be welcome to add it to the "stream" and we will be able to provide special labels for you if you would like to remember a family member or friend lost in combat.

We have poppy patterns for crocheting and knitting. If you would like to have copies please contact us but please come up with your own ideas if you would like to - they will all be welcome. Whatever material is used the main criteria is that it should be able to reasonably stand up to the weather as who knows what it will throw at us in November. So no tissue paper poppies!

We have already asked the WI's to start making poppies and we hope to get other groups and people who have offered support involved soon but if you need a pattern, or are happy to help in any way we should be really pleased to have you on board and look forward to hearing from you.

The church will also host a special display inside put together by the

CORNERSTONE COMMUNITY CHURCH (URC)

Martin Cope

(Secretary: Cornerstone Community Church, Sedbergh)

Following a meeting of the URC members of Cornerstone Community Church last month, it was unanimously agreed to close the Main Street building and transfer it, along with the URC Manse, to the North West Synod of the URC.

This was a painful decision for the URC members to take, but the financial realities of one church operating across two sites has forced the closure to be the most sensible course of action to take. This decision was also prompted by the outcome of an independent options appraisal conducted by a firm of Manchester based architects, which took place in the spring. The appraisal favoured the development of the New Street, rather than the Main Street site. This outcome has been adopted by the members of Cornerstone Community Church.

There will be a special closing service at the Main Street site on Saturday 6th October at 2.00pm.

Cornerstone Community Church will honour all bookings for the rest of 2018, but will be unable to take any bookings for 2019.

Elders and members have not taken this decision easily, fully appreciating the role that the Congregational Church, URC and Cornerstone Community Church building has played within the wider Sedbergh community since the 19th Century. They thank the community for their support over the years. An honourable history is coming to an end. Cornerstone Community Church will continue to support the people of Sedbergh from their New Street site in the future. ☺

The Friends of Queens Gardens invite all young children to a Teddy Bears Picnic on Saturday 8th September, all they have to bring is a picnic, a rug to sit on, an adult and of course, a teddy bear!

A treasure hunt, games and music will all be part of the fun during the

There will be tea, coffee and biscuits for the grown ups, and squash for the little people.

The fun starts at 2.30 pm, so come to the Gardens to have a great, free afternoon. Don't forget, all families are very welcome and the more teddies that come, the better!

Graham Hooley, LAS Community excavations in the Lune Gorge

In the July Lookaround we reported that Lunesdale Archaeology Society (LAS) had been awarded a Heritage Lottery Fund grant of £53,300 to investigate a pre-historic settlement in the Lune Gorge south of Tebay. The work is now progressing rapidly and we have the first set of results from the geophysical, aerial and walkover surveys (see our website www.lunesdale.wordpress.com).

We are now starting the excavation phase and will be digging for the Britons living in our area two thousand years ago!

The excavations are planned for 27th September through to 12th October 2018 and we are now recruiting volunteers to help. No previous archaeological experience is required as full training will be provided on site by professional archaeologists. There will be a range of activities, from digging in the trenches through to washing, sorting and recording finds (and even making the tea!). We will also be drawing up a more detailed plan of the site using current surveying techniques, again full training will be provided to volunteers. We are planning a series of open days when visitors can come along to see what we have found and discuss the results so far with the archaeologists on site. Dates and times will be announced in the October Lookaround.

To keep informed about the project please visit our website www.lunesdale.wordpress.com or sign up to our Instagram feed (search for Lunesdale Archaeology in Instagram). You can also join our email list for regular updates and volunteering opportunities by emailing LAS at lunesdale.archaeology@gmail.com. JULY

Thursday July 5th was hot with wall to wall sunshine. Nine members one former member and one husband met at Kirkby Stephen and took the train to Carlisle. The city has a lot to offer so it was no problem deciding how to spend the day. The highlight being the iconic poppy sculptures on display at the castle. On our return journey home we stopped off at Cross Keys in Cautley where we enjoyed a lovely meal prepared by Chris and her staff.

The afternoon continued with a short business meeting. We were reminded of forthcoming events, the County Show, The Torchlight Procession Calling all WI Suffragettes. We are invited to travel around the route in Kendal in a Classic Cin recognition of the centenary of some women getting the vote for the first time.

The competition for the drawing of a poppy judged by the cross keys staff first Sheelagh Dennis second Dylis McCaffery. Anita Carey went home with the raffle prize. Thanks were expressed to Chris and the staff. Also to Liz Moore for the efficient organising of a great day out we all enjoyed.

AUGUST.

President Bridget Postlethwaite welcomed members to the meeting. We were pleased to see Mary Silva back with us. We had a good turn out of visitors Yvette Martin, Beth Charlton, and John Hatt.

A complimentary entrance ticket has been received for the council meeting to be held at the town Hall on October 23rd additional tickets are available .

The dreaded data protection forms have been received for us to deal with along with a helpful letter. Jackie Hooley gave details of the community excavations taking place at Lowe Borrow Bridge made lovely lemon drizzle cake; 2. a scrumptious chocolate fudge cake; and 3. a Yorkshire Bun loaf. These have served me well over the years so thus it was I volunteered to provide one for our Killington WI Summer Garden Party. This was held in Sally's beautiful garden and a wonderful time was had by all. Sally is our weather goddess and once again the sun shone at her behest. We managed plenty of chatting in between our elegant eating. It was good to have the chance to catch up with our former member Barbara Leigh but sad that Pam Fenton had recently left us to be nearer her family in Marlborough. We wish Pam and Mike, "Happy Landings". Sadly though, nobody was able to enjoy my lemon cake because I didn't make one! As my Mum used to say, "The spirit is willing but the flesh is weak". Please don't tell anyone in the WI, I might be excommunicated but I strongly recommend 'Grandma Wild's Lemon Drizzle Cake and Grandma Wild's Farmhouse Fruit Cake, obtainable from Powell's. If you want to be really devious you could remove the outer wrapping - NO, of course I wouldn't. (Thanks for the money, Martin!)

August used to be a non-meeting month for Killington WI but now the month seems busier than ever. Our Monday morning knitting or not-knitting gatherings continue 'come hell or high water'- (Mum again). And we have had a committee meeting and a proper meeting at the People's Hall.

Our speakers were Lhakpa and his wife Pat Sherpa who live in Barbon. They had met in the early nineties when Pat had gone trekking in the Mount Everest region of Nepal. Lhakpa was the Sherpa leader of the trek. He started his talk with an introduction to the general geography of Nepal and moved on to show us the spectacular mountains and the way of life of the people in the remote country side. He, himself is a highly qualified mountaineering guide as well as a leader of treks for walkers and we saw pictures of the impressive training which they undertake. The second part of their talk concentrated on the work which they have organised and completed in his home village of Khiraule about 30 miles from Everest base camp. In 1995 Lhakpa took his wife Pat to visit his village where she saw that it did not have even the most basic requirements for a school. On their return she started raising funds. Their achievements since then have been absolutely phenomenal. They have rebuilt and equipped the school, opened a clinic, improved pathways and water supplies, and recently brought reliable electricity to the village. Now they plan to build a Community Centre and help rebuild houses which were damaged in the earthquake. The joy of it is that THEY

More tea and chat followed and Margaret Denton won our competition for "a warm hat" (suitable for Everest!), and also the raffle. Well done, girl! We had started our meeting with "business" but I will tell you what I need to later -yes there is still more to come!

to 12 people in a place of their choice. This was won by the primary school staff who decided a good time to have it was to celebrate the end of term on the patio at the back of the school. Since there are 13 members of staff we extended the offer to a baker's dozen of them! At 3pm on Wednesday 18th July four of us turned up at the school with bags and baskets of food and crockery and, while the children were in Assembly, we laid the tables which were set out on the patio with Marjorie's pretty embroidered tablecloths and Valerie's mother's wedding present china, as well as the all-important homemade scones, butter, jam and clotted cream. Once the children were safely out of the building we could make the tea and take it out for the staff to help themselves: they seemed very appreciative! When all was finished, we cleared away and took the washing-up home, very relieved that the rain which was threatening from mid-afternoon had stayed away.

Lots more baking was needed the next week for our Coffee Morning in the CCC Rooms on 25th July. Many thanks to everyone who came to support us: it was very successful.

The walking group, led by Rosemary Blanchfield, met the next day for an enjoyable circular walk of around 6.5 miles from Beetham nurseries, returning there for lunch. It was a pleasantly warm day, not too hot for walking.

Our Open Meeting on August 8th brought in lots of visitors (including men!) to see a presentation by Richard Cann of the History Society's collection of 'Slides of Old Sedbergh', some of the photos dating back to the 1850s. It was fascinating to see the changing faces of buildings familiar to us today such as 'The White Hart', 'The Black Bull' and 'The Dalesman', as well as photos of old cottages which were pulled down to widen the road, as in Main Street and Finkle Street. Perhaps the two most surprising buildings we saw in the photos were the octagonal Methodist Chapel which was later replaced by the large Methodist Church in New Street when the population grew; and the amazing Akay Hall between Busk Lane and the River Rawthey – a minor stately home really – which fell victim to the aftermath of WW1 when it was no longer possible to hire the staff needed to run the house and grounds. In 1936 the estate was bought by Sedbergh School but the building burnt down in 1939 and the remains are now completely overgrown by woodland. We had a very interesting evening and extend our grateful thanks to Richard and also to Valerie Cann, who operated the projector. At the end of the presentation everyone tucked in to tea and cakes!

On that same day, August 8th, our programme secretary, Sandra Gold-Wood, and her husband, Keith Wood, were in Ypres in Belgium, taking part in the British Legion Great Pilgrimage 90 Parade when they had the honour of carrying the Wreath and Standard respectively of our local British Legion branch to the Menin Gate for the Hundred Days Ceremony commemorating the last 100 days of World War 1.

Sandra Kemp hosted our book club discussion on the 9th. 'Amenable Women' by Mavis Cheek tells the story of Flora Chapman whose flamboyant husband, Edward, dies in a bizarre accident. Most of us enjoyed the book, appreciating the humour of the situations described, though one member of the group thought the wit was forced, and two or three didn't like the techniques used by the author to tell Anne's story whereas others thought it was a novel way of doing so; most of us were interested by the new slant put on the character

As we met for our August meeting the fine warm weather we are all enjoying continues. With the sun shining through the windows Sue our President welcomed members and visitors.

As always the evening began with business and plans to hold a Fashion

Show evening on October 19th. This event will include the latest fashions from Kitty Brown Boutique with three of our members strutting their stuff as models (volunteers are needed). This is a charity funding event and the proceeds will be donated this year to the Air ambulance and Blood Bikes. An event not to be missed

We then heard that members had visited Kitriding Farm and enjoyed a delicious lunch there. Following this members are invited to an organised visit to the Growing Well charity (a recipient from our fund raising last year) and this will be combined with a Dining club lunch at Sizergh Barn. Two more food items followed, firstly plans for providing Afternoon Teas at the August Bank Holiday Monday Gala. We support the Gala every year and all our members provide delicious cakes, traybakes, teabreads and sandwiches and help with preparing and serving a scrumptious feast. Another event for the diary.

Looking forward to September when we are holding our Open meeting (another food event!) When a Jacobs Join supper will be served.

The last 'foodie event to be discussed was our 'Christmas Party ' I know it is only .August but experience has it that the 'shopping early for Christmas has its benefits, we shall see, decisions are still to be made.

us that October 23rd is the date for the Federation Council Meeting and tickets are available and again I know it is only August but the Federation calendar for 2019 is available to order.

Business over it was time to welcome Ian Beatty from the north Cumbria branch of 'Blood Bikes ' who then shared with us the fantastic support service they provide to the NHS. The organisation provides a voluntary courier service across the North linking Cumbrian hospitals with those in Hexham and Newcastle and also with the Great North Air Ambulance at Langwathby. Transporting blood, plasma, microbiology and histology samples, bloods for testing, surgical instruments and also supplies of breast milk for the breast milk bank. The volunteer drivers use either motor cycles or cars to transport these essential items assisting the medical teams providing care to patients. The Blood Bikes service is funded purely from charity fund raising, donations, local fund raising events and very fortunately for North Cumbria the Henry Surtees Foundation. The well known racing driver John Surtees set up this fund in memory of his son. The financial support from the Foundation in conjunction with the Vauxhall Motor company enables the volunteer courier drivers to have reliable motor cycles and cars to provide the service 24 hours 7 days a week 365 days a year. We learned that the cars are essential during extreme winter conditions as samples need to be retained at an optimal temperature and exposure on the carrier of a motor cycle would result in the samples freezing during transport and therefore rendered useless. The products are carried in sealed boxes and a formal paper trail is maintained through out the journey. All drivers must have an Advanced Driving qualification and many volunteers are ex policemen, firemen or ambulance personnel. The Blood Bikes courier service covers most of the UK and specimens are transferred across boundaries from one volunteer group to the next enabling a patient in an emergency situation in southern England to receive the required blood or other essential which may have travelled the length of the country. Some of us had seen these Blood Bikes vehicles on the motorway with their distinctive chequered logos, to others it was a learning experience, but we were united in being thankful for the life saving service these volunteer drivers provide free of charge to our wonderful National Health Service.

Our evening ended as always with tea and biscuits, time to chat and on this particular evening to sign two cards. One to one of our members who is leaving the area to be nearer her family and the other to celebrate the 100th birthday of one of our past members. We do not have too many of these so it was a special occasion. Carol and Anthea went home with raffle prizes and Thelma won the competition with her humorous get well card.

We meet again on September 12th when it is our annual Open meeting and as always visitors are most welcome.

BOXES OF HOPE CUMBRIA

Pam Dent (20042)

Boxes of Hope Cumbria, working in conjunction with Nicu and our partner charity People to People in Romania, continues to go from strength to strength. Many of the 9671 shoe-boxes raised by last year's Christmas appeal were distributed in new (to us) areas in south east Romania, down towards Constanta and the Black Sea, and in the north east, bordering on Ukraine. This is a long way from the Oradea area in north west Romania, where People to People is based and where we started working with them back in 2013, but the needs of the poorest of the poor children and their families are just as great: living conditions are appalling, education lacking and unemployment rates extremely high. An additional challenge for last year's distribution team was that in one area they visited near the Bulgarian border the lingua franca was Turkish: "this proved interesting for us as only Nicu's contact could speak Turkish, and many of the villagers did not speak Romanian!" (BoH newsletter, January 2018).

The gift of a shoe-box is a vital part of getting to know a community and its most urgent needs, which are then followed up by People to People and other relevant charities. The primary school project at Tinca, with which Boxes of Hope was involved, has come to an end, the Romanian government having agreed to take over the running of what is now a fully functional and successful school. We are now involved in a similar project at Hetea, a small village near Brasov. Interestingly, chairs, tables and other equipment which was originally donated to the Tinca project have found their way to Hetea to set the ball rolling there – nothing is wasted!

However, what matters to the individual child is the gift of a shoe-box at Christmas time – I'm sure you can imagine the surprise and delight of the children as they open the boxes and discover the untold treasures within. Leaflets will be available from the Post Office and TIC (72 Main St.), to where completed boxes should be returned by 12th November. Leaflets and empty boxes will also be available at

CHRISTIAN AID

*Anne Pitt
(on behalf of the committee)*

Our AGM was held on the 17th July in St Andrew's Church rooms when we looked over the previous year's events. As a committee we have endeavoured to 'travel light' keeping up fund raising with trimming unnecessary workloads on our committee members drawn from our local church communities. This model seems to be working well. Having said this we'd be delighted if any others interested in the work of Christian Aid would like to join our efficient small committee to spread the load even more efficiently.

Mrs Janet Dodds, our treasurer, presented the annual accounts with the totals raised through the year July 2017 – 2018 and we'd like to thank everyone who has contributed to it through this year.

Amount sent direct to Christian Aid during the year:-

October Coffee morning	£229.70
March Coffee morning	£150.00
May C.A. Week Coffee morning	£256.00
House to house	£2649.42
Miscellaneous including:
Bequest from Rev Bill Long	£902.00
TOTAL	£4187.12
(Last years' total:-	£3530.91)

Once again we are grateful for the great boost in the door to door envelopes from the Gift Aid slips were enclosed which means that from those donations Christian Aid receive extra money back from the tax man – always a cheery event.

We have one remaining activity this year which is our Coffee Morning on Wednesday 10th October in the CCC rooms in Sedbergh. ☺

BELLRINGERS

St Andrew's, Sedbergh first Lady Bellringers during World War II.

First lady bellringer ringer from Sedbergh [Obituary October 1965]
Late Mrs D Blamire

The death took place on Wednesday last week at West Cumberland Infirmary, Whitehaven, of Mrs. Eleanor Blamire, of 2 Glebe Road, Distington, Cumberland. Mrs. Blamire, who was 55 years of age was formerly Miss Harrison, and married Mr. James Blamire, who survives her. Before marriage, was well known as the first lady bell ringer in the north. Trained by the late Mr Bobby Woodhouse, she was for several years a member of his team of ringers at Sedbergh Parish Church, and he also taught her hand bell ringing. The funeral at Sedbergh Parish Church was conducted by the Rev. D A. Rogers (Vicar), with Mr L. Smith at the organ. Interment took place in Sedbergh.

Ella (Eleanor) Harrison was born in 1910 and married in September 1938 to James Blamire and was buried in Sedbergh on 30th October 1965, aged 55 years. The grave number is 162 Bl. 4.

Women Ringers at Sedbergh [Newspaper cutting of 29 September 1945]

“Silent” Training During War

The growing interest in campanology among women has been one of the results of the shortage of men ringers at the end of the war, when church bells were freed from their long silence. Sedbergh, always a stronghold of stalwart bell ringers, was well to the forefront in teaching this ancient art, and young girls of the town and district were being tutored – at a time when they could not hear any sound for their efforts. Now, these girls are fully-fledged bell ringers and assist in each Sunday programme at Sedbergh

Parish Church. "And very good some of them are," was the comment of Mr G F Woodhouse, who next year completes 50 years as a ringer and is recognised as one of the outstanding authorities on the art in the North of England. In August 1937, the Gazette published a photograph and article regarding a machine he had invented which would play any known peal simply by setting certain electric systems in motion. Speaking of the 720 Bob Minors which were rung the previous Sunday evening as a farewell to two of the girls who were leaving the district, Mr Woodhouse said: "They are all keen on their work and proud to do it. Braithwaite and Diana James were in the team, but unfortunately at the time they become good ringers they have to leave the district to follow their occupations as teachers or students." Others are Jean Bone (aged 16), Joyce Taylor (15), Joan Sedgwick, Jean Thompson and three youths – Michael Bland, Leslie Braithwaite and Kenneth Ashworth. "People often ask me how long it takes to become an accomplished ringer," continued Mr Woodhouse. "It takes quite as long as it does to become an able pianist and, like music, you never come to the end. The heaviest bell for the female ringers is about 10cwts. The more you ring bells the more you want to, as there is always something new to learn. Two very worthy members, Mr T Sisson and Mr J W Pennington have been ringing for nearly half the century."

Campanology – At Sedbergh last week, 720 Bob Minor was rung in 20 minutes by Teresa Towler (16) 1-2, G F Woodhouse (conductor) 3-4 and Betty Braithwaite (17) 5-6. This is the first 720 rung by the two ladies. On

SEDBERGH BOOK TOWN

FACTS:

- 1) Sedbergh is England's only book town
- 2) Sedbergh has the most books for sale per head of population anywhere in England
- 3) Westwood bookshop was voted one of the Guardian newspaper's top ten second hand bookshops in England
- 4) Sedbergh is listed as one of 45 book towns around the world in a recent publication – 'Book Towns' by Alex Johnson (published by Frances Lincoln)

When foot and mouth devastated this area in 2001 a group of local people decided to take a step of faith and develop Sedbergh in to a book town. The project took off, book shops opened and festivals occurred annually. Of course, with austerity, some shops have closed and businesses are facing ongoing challenges.

So where are all of our books? Some shops may have closed, but many outlets stock a range of very interesting second-hand books amongst their wares. The Sleepy Elephant isn't just for walkers, nor Farfield Clothing. Our local Charity Book Shop has shelves of differing topics and the Information Centre has a vast range of books. Farfield Mill has two excellent sections and, of course, the biggest of all outlets is Westwood Books. Most visitors spend many hours in there. Thank goodness they also serve coffee!

We now have a high reputation as England's Book Town and many visitors come to Sedbergh from far and wide in order to view our books. It has been a while since we have had a festival, but this is soon to be rectified. A small weekend event will take place between Friday 5th and Sunday 7th October. Our theme will be 'Landscape and Wellbeing', and who best to talk about this than Amanda Owen – the Yorkshire Shepherdess. She has often appeared on tv documentaries and her books are on sale at the Information Centre. The remainder of the weekend will host other local authors. Details of events will be posted nearer the time.

We know that we are a Book Town but we need to celebrate and develop our literary visibility more. Our disused bus shelter on Main Street is soon to become a 'Book Shelter'. Many of our cafes will be adding bookshelves and turning in to book cafes. More is in the pipeline.

We residents are lucky to have such a unique asset, and should you wish to help spread the word further, do look at the Sedbergh Book Town

Events

Twelve members of staff left at the end of the academic year, among them John Sykes and Jim Fisher who retired having chalked up between them 216 terms. Dan Harrison takes over as Headmaster at the beginning of term and Andrew Fleck as Principal having jurisdiction over Sedbergh School, Sedbergh Prep School Casterton and the new Chinese venture.

During the holidays a great deal of refurbishment has been taking place – among other things Powell House has been rewired, two Houses have completely new House kitchens with electricity replacing the ancient gas equipment, and the Headmaster's office area has been rearranged to take account of the changes in management. The boathouse at Killington has been refurbished. By the way, the scaffolding on Sid's Barn and the barn in Akay Wood is there not for any work to be done, but to stabilise the buildings.

The National Children's Orchestra was again here in the second week of August and by the time this goes to press their informal preview of their concert programme will have taken place on 17th August. Judging by the noise when not playing instruments they enjoyed themselves.

The School is auditioning for A Midsummer Night's Dream to be performed in the Brewery Arts Centre in Kendal at the end of November.

At the same time a second team won the Schools' Fours beating Stamford by a single point. In addition Sarah Rorison won the Fox Quaich (for the top shot in the main School's competition) keeping the trophy at Sedbergh for the third year running. In the Veterans' Match the OS team came 5th and the combined

The School's A Level results were once again very successful and again an improvement on the previous year. 66% of the exam results were graded A*-B with 16% graded A*. Two pupils got A*A*A*, five got A*A*A, one got four starred distinctions at BTEC exams, and four others got three. All pupils passed every exam they sat."

JULY WEATHER

With a dry start we reached an official drought on the 11th though the latter part of the month was fairly wet. With a total of 1.9 inches (48mm) it was a reasonable amount, considering the earlier drought, but almost a third of that fell on the 29th. Even during this wetter part we still had 11 dry days. With the lack of rain and the high temperatures plants became stressed especially grass. The high pressure which prevailed during the earlier part of the month was also responsible for lighter winds. The stronger winds were recorded during the latter part with a maximum gust of 17.7mph (28.5kph). Temperatures were high during the dry period of the month with many days getting well into the 80sF (26.6C) in the sun with a maximum of 78.6F (25.8C) shade temperature. The minimum temperature for the month was 43.9F (6.6C).

Due to the high temperatures water became a problem especially for the sheep. I am regularly taking 30- 40 gallons across. Fortunately they were clipped so weren't too stressed. The lack of grass meant I was still feeding full rations and taking hay across as well plus breaking branches of leaves from the bushes. I have had far more incidents of scald, particularly in lambs, during this hot spell. It has also the time for lambs to get heads stuck in the fence. This is largely due to the grass being greener on the other side of the fence and the ear tags which stop them pulling back.

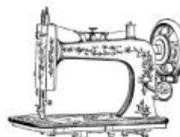

Birds continue to visit the feeding station. It seems that the sparrows have had a good season, judging by the times I am filling up the seed feeder. The various tits are regular visitors as are goldfinch and woodpecker. Likewise the very large numbers of assorted crows, especially jackdaws, suggest that they have had a good breeding season and are soon down to help the poultry and sheep eat up their rations when I leave.

Rabbits are not around at present it seems either in the garden or field. Butterflies are still in short supply, even though the buddleia is in flower. I have seed 1 comma, a couple of peacocks and a few small whites. Nettles and thistles seem to have had a bonanza this year and have grown tremendously in spite of the lack of rain but no caterpillars yet. The first cut of the grass in the garden resulted in 14 boxes to empty the last cut was just 2 boxes showing how the lack of rain has affected growth.

breeding swifts, who have only themselves to look after, to embark on their migration back to Africa.

This year we have observed some unusually late breeding. In general swifts lay eggs by mid to late May. We had two newly-formed pairs of swifts that laid eggs very late in the season, around 20th June, the date by which chicks have usually hatched. We believe that this may occur when two young swifts that would not normally be ready to breed this season form a new pair, but because the conditions are very good, they do indeed go on to breed, albeit so late. It means that their chicks wouldn't fledge until around 20th August, well after the time that most other swifts have departed.

We also had the unusual situation where two pairs of swifts both laid a second clutch of eggs, after the original eggs had been knocked out of the nest. One of the pairs in the Settlebeck school boxes laid 3 eggs but all were knocked out. We were then astonished to see that another 2 eggs had been laid by 29th June. This is a considerable toll on a female to have produced 5 eggs. Unfortunately these too were knocked out – are these exceptionally clumsy swifts we wonder? Luckily, in the other webcam box all went smoothly for the other pair, with 2 chicks being successfully reared.

In a box at Lowgill, another pair of swifts knocked both their eggs out of the nest, within only a few days of laying. Then they too, a fortnight later in mid-June, laid 2 more eggs. The chicks are doing well and although at the time of writing (15th August) they are still in the nest, we expect them to fledge in a few days time. Like the other late swifts, we have to wonder what the fate of these chicks is that launch themselves into the sky for the first time when there are far less or no swifts flying around to join. Do they have to migrate to Africa entirely on their own? We wonder how many make it.

Finally: we'd like to hear from all of you who have swift boxes - please let us know if swifts have gone in. And also please do tell us if you know of buildings where swifts nest, as you may have seen properties that we're not aware of - we're gradually trying to map all the places where swifts breed in Sedbergh and elsewhere in the area.

received its "Royal" appellation on 29 May 1971, on its golden anniversary.

In August 1928 a Great Pilgrimage was organised by the (then) British Legion to take members of bereaved families who perhaps hoped to find the graves of their sons/husbands/ brothers/uncles or sweethearts. They visited the newly built monument to the missing that we know as the Menin Gate at Ypres.

Some of our own Sedbergh and District lads are buried or commemorated there.

Wednesday August 9 2018 saw the now Royal British Legion mark the 90th anniversary of this event with its 'Great Pilgrimage 90' (GP90). The RBL pulled off an astonishing feat of organisation getting more 2500 RBL standard bearers and wreath bearers to Ypres in time and ready to march through the city to the Menin Gate. How marvellous to see our own Sedbergh and district Standard being flown through Ypres with the many others from cities, towns and villages from all over the U.K. All traffic was banished for the town square and surrounding streets, barriers held back the crowds as the parade marched up to the Menin Gate led by the band of the Royal Marines (Scotland).

A very moving service of Remembrance was held in the monument headed by various notables including Archbishop of York, Dr Sentamu and our own

For Sandra and I life would not be complete without our many visits to this beautiful, friendly and entirely rebuilt city known almost universally by our soldiers as 'Wipers.' During WWI the town was totally destroyed. The people of Ypres somehow found the strength and resilience to start again having found the some of the original town plans and photographs in the ruins.

SEPTEMBER GARDENING 18

Elaine Horne

As daylight hours grow shorter, and parts of the garden begin to take on that end of season, dishevelled look, I begin to look forward to Spring. This is partly due to the fact that the spring flowering bulbs are now to be found in garden centres, supermarkets and plant catalogues.

Being very fond of spring bulbs I always have to buy a few, so I will no doubt succumb to some Tulips and Crocus this year. Tulips seem to be in fashion at the moment, but I doubt that they will ever reach the heights of popularity which they gained at the time of "Tulipmania" in the mid 17th and mid 19th centuries. During these peaks in Tulip popularity rare bulbs were so sort after that people gave a good deal of money and sometimes items of property in order to purchase a rare bulb. For one bulb of Tulip 'The Viceroy' a collector gave 1000 pounds of cheese, 4 oxen, 8 pigs 12 sheep, a bed and a suit of clothes.

'The Viceroy' does not seem to feature in any of my plant catalogues so this year I shall opt for some of my old favourites. Tulip 'Abu Hassan' is a mid season variety with rich mahogany/copper coloured flowers and T. 'Little Princess', a small species, has rich pink, blue centred blooms. 'Coeur Cardinal' is a bright red with a hint of crimson.

I usually grow my new tulips in pots so that they are out of the way of hungry slugs and snails though the robust red and yellow Darwin types come up every year in the border.

I shall enjoy planting these, alongside some large flowered crocus, and look forward to the beginning of the growing season next year.

The Dentdale Choir begins its new season on the 11th of September at 7.15 p.m. with a social event in the Memorial Hall in Dent Village. We will of course also sing and start to introduce some of our music for the year. We are looking forward to seeing existing and returning members and would love to welcome prospective members too. The choir is non-auditioning and ability to read music is not required. We do like to tackle some challenging music as well as learning some fun and lighter numbers.

This year we will be working towards a spring concert featuring Schubert's Mass number 2 in G. We will also be working on a series of shorter pieces which will include some beautiful works by Tavener, Biebl and Gjeilo. During the first term we will also be working towards our usual Christmas Carol services in Dent and Cowgill. As well as preparing some more familiar carols, this term we will be working on a new work by Will Todd and some west-gallery-style carols by popular request of members of the choir.

The choir is a friendly and welcoming group who are committed to having fun but also working hard towards producing music that we love and are duly proud of. Do join us on the 11th and find out if you'd like to sing with us more. We'd love to hear from you in advance. Please contact the choir secretary:

St MARK'S CHURCH, CAUTLEY

Judith and Maureen (Churchwardens)

People flocked to St Mark's Church, Cautley on Saturday 21st July to admire the new path and to enjoy a cream tea. This was a fundraising event but also a social event, drawing together people from Cautley, Sedbergh and further afield. As well as the delicious cream tea there were plants and books to buy and musical entertainment from some members of the Bryce Street Strummers.

We were overwhelmed by people's generosity and delighted to announce that we made £1350, which will go towards the cost of the path. Our grateful thanks to the Blake family, who worked tirelessly behind the scenes preparing plates of food, to the ukulele players and singers, and to all who came along to support us.

pushing of small bikes/cars and pushing the swing. Bear Hunts and "exploring" are things we do regularly, besides the sea, through a wood or just in the village. Playing "islands" is a game I will not be playing again, it consisted of benches for Islands and the floor the sea. When little child shouted 'spiders or sharks' we had to jump from land to sea or vice versa .. I probably didn't actually "jump" but unfortunately stood on end of a bench and it and me soared into the air .. what goes up has to come down..ooww. Bruises all along R side. I could hear little voices "Grannie .. u OK? " After few minutes I got up with Mummy's help . "u do that again?" asked an awestruck grandchild!

Jumping has occurred at the exercise classes a friend and I have joined and my poor arthritic knee was not very happy. We kept up with the fitter ladies in the group .. but did a bit of our own thing. Both collapsed in a hot giggly heap as the rest did running on the spot while stretched out on the floor .. why? I have no idea, it must stretch and tone somewhere that nothing else can! Think I might pass.

What an awesome summer we are having, endless hot sunny days like I remember as a child. Meals outside, playing outside, even sleeping outside. And Grandad, me and 2 grandchildren are of on holiday in a caravan.. more on that next month.

Here we are preparing for the Gala, fancy dress ideas are kept secret, helpers sought for this n' that and all the planning will come to fruition. Over the years a great many people have helped and supported the Gala and persuaded folks to buy goods

HOLIDAY CLUB 2018

The Holiday Club Team

The People's Hall was transformed into a hive of activity from Monday 23rd – Friday 27th July, as the children of Sedbergh and the surrounding area met during the mornings for the annual holiday club. This was hosted by the Western Dales Mission Community and was open to children of Primary School age,

The title of the 2018 holiday club was 'On Your Marks...' and it was based on stories about Jesus from Mark's Gospel, with the theme of 'teamwork'. The setting was the Global Games, so the week had an international feel, with the children being athletes representing various countries. There were stories, games, crafts and singing. All the usual fun! Family members were invited to come along to a special service on Sunday morning (29th July) to find out what the children had been up to during the week.

More than seventy children attended during the week and their commitment and enthusiasm ensured the success of the club. None of this could have been possible, however, without the hard work and dedication

ZERO WASTE SEDBERGH

Suzie Pye

Well mid-August saw the first "proper" meeting of the Zero Waste Sedbergh team. Yes there is a team now, which feels great. Three present, and four apologies – not a bad start. It is exciting to be sharing ideas, and pooling resources and talents with others. At the time of writing we are still in need of a Secretary and a Treasurer. If you think you may be able to help, do please get in touch. It would be lovely to have a good run up to Christmas, with a fully functioning team!

The big news this month is that Sedbergh is now working towards official Plastic Free Status. This will come via an organisation called Surfers Against Sewage (if you haven't heard of them already, keep an ear out as they tend to pop up in the media from time to time). To gain PF Status Sedbergh needs to meet five criteria, some of which we have already met (or very nearly). The full details can be found at zerowastesedbergh.com where I'll be keeping you updated on our progress.

Now, if you're only just getting on board with reducing the plastic you use, it can seem rather daunting but don't worry! There are a couple of essentials you may want to equip yourself with as a great place to start: a reusable bottle, a reusable coffee cup, and reusable bags. Once you are using these on a regular basis you will notice how habitual and easy it becomes - keys, wallet, bottle... Then you can begin to make other small changes when out shopping. You don't have to change the world overnight: if enough people take tiny steps, they soon become giant strides. For more tips and ideas, just visit the ZWS website or get in touch on 07833 534710.

Thanks also to Dawsons Fuels for their most generous donation of topsoil, delivered to the Orchard for the new raised beds. The Cosmos, Verbena and Nasturtiums are all looking good, and there are more plants to come in the autumn.

Steven Cayley and the Y5 pupils from Sedbergh Primary School will soon be visiting the Orchard to help set up the Bug Hotel, and to learn about fruit trees and pollination.

It is thanks to contributions like these that we can take pride in a true

CAR TAX SCAM

Dear Editor

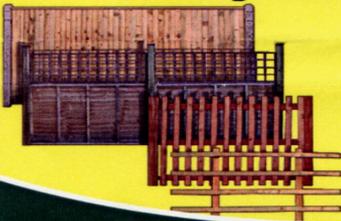

Judith Walsh

We have recently been targeted by a scam which I feel I should alert people about.

Recently, we had to change the taxation class of a vehicle we own, we did this through the local post office who had to send a registration document to DVLA and we had to wait for a new one. I made a telephone call (not from our mobile) to DVLA, as the document took a long time coming, but eventually it arrived.

Just over a month after, we received a text message on our mobile phone apparently from DVLA, Swansea saying that they had been trying to contact us and for more details, click on to a website which looked quite convincing. When we clicked onto it, it had a government UK & Crown logo and appeared to be from a Tax Refund Department but going further then ask for lots of personal details including bank details, credit card details, national insurance number, driving licence number and security question answers! We began to hear alarm bells ringing and proceeded no

The disturbing thing about this is that somebody obviously has been able to hack into DVLA to learn who is changing taxation classes and can then pursue them and get their 'identity details'.

The website had a Crown Copyright logo at the bottom and the amount they claimed we can get refunded corresponded very closely to the taxation charge of the vehicle involved, we could have been fooled.

We have reported this to Action Fraud. We would be interested to hear from anyone who else has experienced this scam.

Lakeland part of the Park. The birds nested in a large area of rush on upland pasture primarily used for livestock grazing, with the local shooting estate having rights over it.

Yorkshire Dales National Park Authority (YDNPA) officers have monitored the nest site since early May, working closely with Natural England and the landowner. Cumbria Police has offered behind the scenes support.

Natural England has attached satellite tags onto two of the birds, meaning that the birds' movements will be tracked. It has produced a national summary of this year's hen harrier breeding successes in England.

YDNPA Chairman Carl Lis said: "It is a source of joy, and relief, that hen harriers have at last bred again successfully in the Yorkshire Dales National Park. These are magnificent birds, ideally suited to the Dales, and their long absence has shamed us all.

"Despite the brilliant news about the hen harriers, we shouldn't forget that it has been only a few weeks since a red kite was found shot dead in the south of the National Park. I would urge members of the public to pass on any information they might have to North Yorkshire Police. Grouse shooting concerns, conservation bodies, the police and local wildlife groups must continue to pull together."

The choir will be meeting on Monday evenings from the end of September and learning a number of west gallery and Sheffield pub carols . West Gallery music was sung in country churches from 1700 through to 1850 when the music was banned by Victorian clergy for being too lively. The tradition continued in pubs in several parts of the country - especially in villages near to Sheffield - where it is sung with great gusto in the weeks leading up to Christmas.

The songs are in 3 and 4 part harmony and we will be teaching the harmony parts and tune by ear, so if you don't read music this won't be a problem. I will also be providing recordings for those who would like to practice at home.

On the first weekend in December the choir will be joining a weekend of folk carols in Dent with singers coming from far and near, and a concert with local singers and visiting harmony groups, plus workshops during the day, and festive singing lunches and suppers, and a singing walk up the valley.

We are also starting a children's choir on Tuesday afternoon's from 4.30-5.30pm for any children from Dent over the age of 8 - parents are welcome to get in touch if their children would like to join us. The children's choir will also be singing at the folk carols weekend.

Sunday for evening service 720 Bob Minor was rung in 26 minutes by H Dawson (1), Teresa Towler (2), T Sisson (3), J W Pennington (4), E Pennington (5) and G F Woodhouse, conductor (6). The two young ladies have not been ringing very long and are to be congratulated on their progress. To ring two bells requires a lot of practice and perseverance.

The following are quotations from Diana Rochford, now Sunter about her mother, Jean Rochford, nee Wood, Jean Wood lived in Sedbergh from about 18 months old until 1950: When we were in Sedbergh in Summer 2009 the Historic Society interviewed mum and when we went to the Sedbergh Church, she shot up the ladder without a moment's hesitation and gave them hours of insight into the history of Sedbergh, the church and bell ringing. She was like a walking historical encyclopaedia and that part of history will most certainly NOT be forgotten! Campanology is most certainly a lost art.

Mum told us this story that is mentioned in the clipping; that the bells were muffled during the war and the HUGE excitement to ring the bells for the first time when Victory was declared in Europe. She said it was the most amazing experience to HEAR their years of work for the first time, with the bells starting at one church and then the next village taking up the peal, and so it spread across the North.

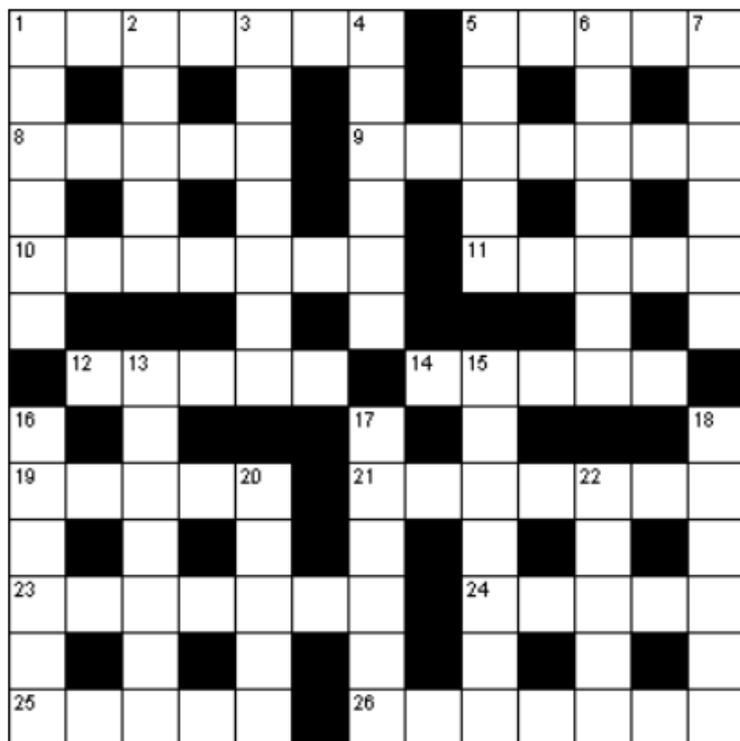

Somewhere, there is a lovely article from the local newspaper of a tribute played by the bell ringers at St Andrews, to mum, one of their own, on her wedding day. I must hunt that down. She married on 22 July 1950

Anthea Boulton of Dent and Sedbergh Oral History Society interviewed Jean Rochford when she was here in 2009 and learnt more about her life in Sedbergh, about starring in Rebecca for the appeal for the People's Hall and about wartime Sedbergh. The interview is kept by the Society.

APOLOGIES

Nobody has highlighted anything this last month so maybe it was an error-free issue?

FUTURE OF LOOKAROUND

There will be an Editorial Meeting at 9am on Thursday 13th September in The Rawthey Room of 72 Main Street. If you would like to know more or would think about helping out with the new Team, just call in or give your details to me.

Please see Page 6 of the July issue which gives an update from the New Team

The December issue will be my last compilation and the new Team will commence from February 2019 so watch this space for future updates and details.

I am not taking any Advertising after December. New Contracts will be made from February 2019 with the new Team.

NEW PHONE NUMBER

In readiness for the changeover to the new Team, a Mobile Phone has been acquired which will be easier to monitor than a Landline.

If you type in 0 (zero) PIN GUY KICK, you will be entering the number which is 07464 895425. This may be easier to remember.

With that, 015396 21960 will no longer be used after 1st December.

NEW ADVERTISERS

Yet another new Advertiser this month with Dalesway Tyre Services. Please mention Lookaround if you make any enquiries.

LOOKAROUND INFORMATION

Whilst every effort is made to ensure that information is correct, the Editors cannot accept any responsibility for any inconvenience caused through errors or omissions. If there is an error with your article or advert, it is your turn this month in amongst hundreds of entries each month.

Current Copies are available from Sedbergh Information Centre, Sedbergh Mini Market, Post Office, Spar, Dent Stores & Barbon & by Post (please enquire). Back Copies are available to read at the History Society Archive at 72 Main Street.

ARTICLES

All articles and reports are inserted for free and photographs are included pending on space. Could text be submitted either typed out or written in BLOCK CAPITALS as sometimes, it can be difficult to establish what is written.

ADVERTISING

For the benefit of advertisers, the following information will assist you.

If you wish to place an Advert in Lookaround, please include the correct money or cheque with the details & place it in the Post Box. A receipt will be issued & left in the Lookaround Tray in the Office for collection or include a SAE.

Our distribution area is the LA10 Postal District which is Sedbergh & the surrounding villages, but it is sent all round the country & the world.

We are published on the 1st of every month (except January).

February to November is printed black ink on white. The December/January issue is in full colour. All copies have a full colour cover to indicate a new issue & photographs are requested from our readers who will be credited.

We do not have whole page adverts but will allow two half page adverts opposite each other.

The Front Page is given priority to Event Adverts relevant for the appropriate month.

You can supply the information & we can create an advert for you. You can supply an example in hard copy & we will reproduce it (please mention if a particular Font is required). You can supply an original using Microsoft Publisher, a Word, a jpg (preferred) or as a PDF (although the quality is reduced when importing it).

If you order numerous adverts, the content can be the same every month or it can change if you are seasonal.

The closing date for everything is 15th of every month.

Advertising rates have been updated: December 1991, December 1995, March 1997 & August 1999 (Over 18 years ago.)

PERSONAL MESSAGES

These are £1 each & are for sending Good Wishes, Thank You's, Birthday Greetings, Anniversaries & any other celebration or congratulation. You may also sell personal items - not on a business basis, & also make an appeal for wanted items.

Details with respect to people Passing Away are inserted for free.

Please submit legible writing as many mistakes have been made in the past due to not being able to read the text properly.

GROUPS AND ORGANISATIONS

Any organisation that charges an admission, sells items or requires a donation from the public for anything at their event & wishes to include details in The Lookaround, are requested to place an Advert with us. This can be supported by text which cannot all be included in the advert.

Any report after the Event is free. The request for payment for an Advert is to assist with financing The Lookaround which has a large printing expense every month. We feel that the Advertising Rates are very reasonable (for the last 18 years). All Adverts for Events automatically have the details entered into the Diary Page at the rear of The Lookaround. If organisations do not wish to Advertise with us, details of the Event will still appear on the Diary Page, but no text will be inserted.

BUSINESSES

Adverts for the Rent or Sale of property are not Personals & can only be included as a boxed Advert.

If you are a new advertiser in Lookaround & you order 3 or more adverts, you will receive one free advert & can also include some text explaining who you are, what you are, where you are, etc (which can not all go into an advert) up to about 550 words for free.

If you have more than 3 months of advertising, we will automatically send a renewal reminder should you wish to continue. If you order 10 months, we give you one free (making one whole year).

We respectfully request payment with ordering. Please make cheques payable to "Sedbergh & District Lookaround".

Payments by BACS can also be made.

If anyone or any business would like to Sponsor the Birthday Voucher, please contact us. Full credit will be given.
